Navigation Lock Closure , H.H. Buckman Lock

1. Mariners are hereby notified the H.H. Buckman Navigation Lock is closed indefinitely at the direction of the Florida Department of Environmental Protection.
2. H.H. Buckman Lock is closed to navigation indefinitely because several of the manatee protection gratings have been damaged and need to be re-engineered and replaced. This will probably take several months to complete.
3. The control of this structure was turned over to the State of Florida at the closure of the Cross Florida Barge Canal. All inquiries about this structure should be directed to:
